Current-affairs cutoff: 21 September 2026

Revised answer edition • 500 four-option questions
Inline answers under every question • Complete answer keys
Dated current affairs • Exam-pattern evidence • Revision notes

Start with banking and payments, then international institutions, dated current affairs, Bangladesh affairs and mixed revision.

This is an independent practice bank, not an official paper or a prediction of exact questions. It cannot guarantee a score. Current facts are anchored to the named source and period; update changing information before the exam.

Exam evidence and study priorities

Your uploaded admit card identifies Job ID 25107 for recruitment to five named banks through the Bankers' Selection Committee. It says the examination centre, date and time will be announced later. It is not an appointment examination exclusively for employment at Bangladesh Bank.

The uploaded earlier notice is for Job ID 10227 and an examination scheduled for 8 May 2026. It shows 75 subject marks, 15 mathematics marks and 10 GK marks in a one-hour MCQ test. This supports your 10-mark practice goal, but does not establish the final distribution for Job ID 25107 or for a separate AD examination.

What the previous-question search actually established

The accessible SATT Academy archive labels its recent first-page questions as Senior Officer (IT), 25 July 2026. Five visible GK items concern RTGS, NATO's nature, a country nickname, Padma Bridge length and SAARC membership. The archive also lists AD papers dated 20 October 2023, 28 October 2022 and 12 November 2021. Their complete MCQ contents were not accessible through the public links used in this session.

Consequently, this is a qualitative pattern assessment from a small, secondary-source sample, not a multi-year frequency analysis. It supports short factual questions, acronym recognition, organization facts and Bangladesh infrastructure. No percentage probability of appearance is claimed. [PAT]

Recommended study allocation

First priority: Q1-100 and Q151-250. Learn banking distinctions, payment acronyms, institutional roles and headquarters.

Second priority: Q401-450 plus recent sports and awards in Q451-478. Read every date and source label.

Third priority: Q101-150 and Q251-400. Consolidate economics, history, projects, SDGs and diplomatic geography.

Final sweep: remaining Q451-500, then a mixed test and an error-only review.

Reading conventions

The green panel below every question gives its correct letter and full answer. Source codes, such as [RES] or [EPA], link to the references at the back. Cover the answer panel when testing yourself. Core concepts and historical practice items are not all individually web-cited. “Scheduled” is different from “completed”; “target” is different from “actual”; signing is different from entry into force.

Final answer review

Final review: 22 September 2026. All 500 question-answer pairs were re-examined for meaning, plausible alternatives, units and dates. Every inline answer and answer-key entry is checked against the corresponding option. This structural check is separate from external factual verification.

Corrections made after the earlier review

Q407-410 now test the later MPC decision. Q448 now asks for the full-year GDP estimate cited in its minutes. Q450 tests the new publication frequency. Q96 explicitly says FX swap. Q132 now specifies merchandise trade. Q212 and Q466 spell out the two different organizations abbreviated ICC. Q442 now tests the explicitly listed US$300 million food-security project, replacing an inconsistent headline total. The earlier approved-budget corrections are retained.

Evidence standard

The policy-rate correction uses Bangladesh Bank documents and transaction records only. Source codes beside other answers identify supporting references. Official sources support payment systems, regulators, GDP and inflation definitions, recovery objectives, World Bank project financing, COP31, FIFA results and Nobel laureates. Some official pages were available only as indexed extracts. Some historical and general-knowledge answers remain based on a content review rather than a separately retrieved primary document; some news items retain clearly identified secondary sources. This edition must not be described as 500 independently primary-source-certified answers.

World Bank amount: why Q442 changed

The 26 June release labels the package US$1.1 billion, but lists US$300 million and US$713 million, which sum to US$1.013 billion. The total is therefore not used as a memorization question. Q442 asks only the explicit US$300 million food-security component. [WB26]

What to learn

Use the answer attached to the precise question and its period. A budget target, a statistical estimate and a forecast are different measures. An August reserve balance is not a live balance. An MoU signature does not mean project completion.

Policy rates: official resolution

The earlier unresolved-conflict note is superseded

The 30 July 2026 MPC resolution sets repo at 9.50%, SLF at 11.00% and SDF at 7.50%. Q407-409 use this decision. [MPCR]

Cross-check: BB reports repo transactions at 9.50% on 14-15 September and an SLF transaction at 11.00% on 25 August. Those dated operational records support the revised rates. The homepage update stamp alone was insufficient evidence. [REPO, SLF]

The earlier H1FY27 MPS remains a historical source for its projections and stimulus figures in Q411-414. Its earlier interest-rate figures must not be memorized as the later operative rates. [MPS]

GDP period correction

The MPS reports 3.03% for Q2FY26 and 4.14% for full-year FY26. These are different periods, not a contradiction. The July MPC minutes also cite the full-year 4.14% estimate. Q448 is worded to that dated official record. [MPS, MPCR]

Reserve and budget labels

Reserve figures use the August 2026 monthly observations. Budget figures refer to the budget approved on 30 June 2026; they are estimates and targets, not audited outcomes. [RES, BUD]

Abbreviations that need care

RMC is treated as Risk Management Committee in governance; RMG means ready-made garments; RMB is renminbi. CBS means Core Banking System. CRR, SLR and LCR are distinct reserve or liquidity concepts. CRAR commonly means Capital to Risk-weighted Assets Ratio.

The intended meanings of CRL and EDESK in your message could not be established from the attachments. They are not silently converted into another acronym. An unrelated Luxembourg regulator also uses the name eDesk; that is not evidence of a Bangladesh Bank initiative.

Final update list

Before the exam, verify: the new job notice and negative-marking rule; latest BB circulars; current governor and major officeholders; BBS GDP/inflation releases; reserve date and definition; budget revisions; LDC graduation decisions; BRICS membership versus partner status; new MoUs and implementation status; summit outcomes; and sports results after this cutoff. The 2026 Nobel cycle was not treated as completed in September.

Revision notes: common traps

Central banking

The central bank manages monetary conditions and financial stability. The finance ministry manages the budget. A refinancing scheme supplies eligible funding; it does not make a borrower's credit risk vanish.

Liquidity versus solvency

Liquidity concerns paying obligations when due. Solvency concerns whether assets and capital can absorb liabilities and losses. A solvent bank can still face a liquidity shortage.

CRR, SLR and capital

CRR is a required cash reserve concept. SLR concerns prescribed liquid assets. Capital adequacy compares eligible capital with risk-weighted assets. Never interchange these ratios.

LCR and NSFR

LCR is the Liquidity Coverage Ratio, focused on a 30-day liquidity stress period. NSFR is the Net Stable Funding Ratio, focused on stable funding over a one-year horizon. These are Basel concepts, not alternative names for CRR.

Repo and reverse direction

A central bank lending cash against securities supplies liquidity. An outright central bank securities sale absorbs liquidity. Read the transaction from the correct institution's perspective.

CBS and payment rails

CBS integrates a bank's accounts and services. RTGS settles individual payments; BEFTN supports electronic transfers; BACH is the clearing-house framework. A messaging network such as SWIFT does not itself become a global central bank.

AML sequence

Placement introduces illicit funds; layering obscures the trail; integration returns funds with an apparently legitimate origin. KYC and beneficial-ownership checks help identify who stands behind an account.

Nostro and vostro

These are perspective-dependent names. “Our account with you” is nostro to us; your account held by us is vostro to us. The underlying account may be the same relationship viewed from opposite sides.

GDP versus GNI

GDP follows domestic production. GNI adds net primary income from abroad. Remittance transfers are not automatically additional domestic production and should not simply be added to GDP.

Targets versus outcomes

A budget growth target is a policy ambition. An IMF forecast is a projection. A BBS provisional estimate may later be revised. Always learn the institution, period and status together.

Budget units

One crore equals ten million. One lakh crore equals one trillion. Thus a number expressed in trillion taka has the same numeric value when expressed in lakh crore taka.

Stocks versus flows

Debt and reserves are stocks measured at a point in time. Annual revenue, exports and remittances are flows measured over a period. Comparing them without a time basis is misleading.

Inflation vocabulary

Disinflation means a slower positive rate of price increase. Deflation means the general price level falls. A lower inflation rate does not necessarily make the shopping basket cheaper.

Trade and current account

The goods trade balance is narrower than the current account, which also includes services and primary and secondary income. A fiscal deficit is a different government-accounting concept.

Bond prices

For fixed promised payments, a higher required yield lowers the price. Treasury bills are short-term government instruments; equity shares represent ownership.

World Bank family

IBRD and IDA are the narrower World Bank. IFC, MIGA and ICSID complete the five-institution World Bank Group. The IMF is a separate organization. [WBG]

SDR precision

SDRs are reserve assets rather than money held by ordinary shoppers. Learn the five basket currencies and distinguish allocation, holdings, valuation and the interest rate. [SDR]

BRICS, NDB and CRA

BRICS is a country grouping; NDB is a development bank; CRA is a liquidity arrangement. Bangladesh's NDB membership does not prove full BRICS membership. Invitations, partner status and membership must be separately checked.

UN courts

The ICJ adjudicates disputes between states and gives advisory opinions under its mandate. The ICC deals with individual criminal responsibility within its jurisdiction. Both being in The Hague does not make them the same court.

Headquarters clusters

Washington: IMF and World Bank. Geneva: WHO, ILO and WTO. Paris: UNESCO. Rome: FAO. Vienna: IAEA and OPEC. Do not infer that every UN body is headquartered in New York.

SAARC chronology

Ziaur Rahman promoted the regional-cooperation proposal. SAARC was formally established in 1985, after his death, under a different Bangladeshi presidency. Proposal and establishment are separate questions.

Liberation War formations

The eleven sectors and the three brigade forces Z, K and S are different organizational categories. Bir Sreshtho and Bir Uttom are different gallantry titles.

Constitution dates

Adoption was 4 November 1972; commencement was 16 December 1972. The original schedules question is historical; it must not be confused with a question about the current amended text.

Project status

Inauguration, public opening, construction completion, grid synchronization and commercial operation are different milestones. Rooppur questions here cover location, partner and planned capacity, not an unverified commissioning claim.

Diplomatic instruments

An MoU, a signed treaty, an agreement in principle and a treaty in force are different legal or diplomatic stages. The Japan EPA question tests signing, not entry into force. [EPA]

Energy and trade shocks

Disruption of shipping, oil, LNG or fertilizer can raise Bangladesh's import bill, production costs and inflation while putting pressure on reserves. Distinguish this channel from excess domestic demand.

Sports specificity

Men's World Cup, Women's World Cup, AFC Women's Asian Cup, Euro and Copa America are different competitions. Always attach gender, tournament and year to the winner.

National versus international awards

The Nobel Peace Prize ceremony is in Oslo; most other Nobel ceremonies are in Stockholm. The economics prize is formally the Sveriges Riksbank Prize in Economic Sciences in Memory of Alfred Nobel.

Seven-day revision plan

Day 1 · Q1-100

Banking and payments. Write every acronym once from memory, then review wrong answers.

Day 2 · Q101-200

Economics and international finance. Practise distinguishing GDP/GNI, deficits, SDR and World Bank institutions.

Day 3 · Q201-300

Organizations and Bangladesh history. Build a headquarters list and a timeline.

Day 4 · Q301-400

Projects, geography, SDGs and diplomacy. Attach locations and dates to each project or agreement.

Day 5 · Q401-500

Dated current affairs, football and awards. Recheck volatile facts against the source links.

Day 6 · Mixed recall

Make ten 10-question tests: test k uses Qk, Q(50+k), Q(100+k), and so on through Q(450+k), for k=1 to 10. Aim for accurate recall in 5-6 minutes; this is a practice pace, not an official GK time allocation.

Day 7 · Error-only review

Repeat the questions you got wrong or guessed. Check the latest recruitment notice, negative marking and all changed current facts.

How to use the remaining questions as mixed tests

For k=11 through 50, use the same formula to create 40 more ten-question tests. Across k=1 through 50, this covers all 500 questions exactly once. These are rearrangements of this book, not 500 additional questions.

If negative marking applies

Read the official rule first. If a correct answer earns 1 and a wrong answer loses p, answering has positive expected marks only when your estimated chance of being right exceeds p/(1+p). Do not assume an unannounced penalty.

Sources and verification limits

Sources were accessed or searched on 21-22 September 2026. Event dates are stated separately where relevant. Some current items were verified through detailed search-result extracts when full pages were unavailable. The references support the tagged facts, not every distractor or every background question.

The two uploaded images and the admit card were read locally. The private admit-card identifiers are intentionally not reproduced. The topic image is a study checklist; the earlier notice is evidence only for its own job ID.

Scope limits

A complete multi-year AME/AD question-frequency study could not be established from the accessible archive. The bank therefore prioritizes topics using the supplied checklist, the earlier mark distribution, a small visible IT recruitment sample and subject relevance. It does not claim that all international organizations or every event worldwide can be covered in 500 questions.

Current-data gaps

The rate conflict has been resolved using the later official MPC decision and operational records. Q448 uses the dated full-year estimate cited by BB. Ambiguous CRL/EDESK terminology and an exhaustive inventory of recent bilateral instruments remain unresolved. General-knowledge review does not imply that a fresh primary document was retrieved for every item.
